

I want to express my full support of the proposal to delete the Morse Code requirement from the amateur radio licensing process.